

David P Hickey – Bio

David Hickey is the Global Managing Director of Hickey and Associates, a leader in location strategy, labor analytics, supply chain and logistics optimization, and government incentives advisory. David leads key client accounts and major initiatives for the firm around the world. In recent years, David has led the firm's robust expansion in the dynamic Asia Pacific region and navigated the growth strategy for EMEA.

Prior to being a senior leader of the firm, David managed legislative and regulatory affairs for an international organization representing business and agriculture cooperatives and served as a policy advisor for a member of the United States Senate. David is a frequent contributor in industry media and a featured speaker at business, real estate, and economic development events globally.

Hickey and Associates supports a wide-ranging, diverse array of clients from industries ranging from aerospace and defense to textiles and FCMG businesses. With nearly forty years in the industry, the firm helps clients navigate their global footprints and supply chains to determine the optimal locations for their business operations.

David resides in Phoenix, Arizona with his wife, son, and an always-excitable American cocker spaniel. David is an alumnus of Arizona State University, is actively engaged in several educational and charitable activities, and also serves on the board of the Michael P Hickey Foundation, a scholarship fund for aspiring economic development professionals.
